IX. INTERIM COMMITTEE REPORT

The Interim Committee recommends to NAPARC the following;

That the Council express to the Synod of the CRC its renewed concern regarding the proposal of the 1993 Synod to permit women to serve in the office of teaching and ruling elder by sending a similar statement to the one adopted in the 1990 and 1991 meetings of the Council, to wit:

In harmony with the stated "purpose and function" of the NAPARC to "exercise mutual concern in the perpetuation, retention, and propagation of the Reformed Faith (Constitution III:3), the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Council calls upon the Christian Reformed Church to reverse the action of the 1990 Synod leading to the opening of the offices of minister and ruling elder to women, as contrary to the Scripture and the Reformed standards which insist that "everything [will] be carried on in the church . . . according to the rule prescribed by Saint Paul in his Epistle to Timothy" (Belgic Confession of Faith Article XXX). I Timothy 2 and 3, in giving authoritative instruction regarding proper conduct "in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth" (3:15), the Apostle explicitly disallows to a woman the exercise of teaching or ruling authority over men in the church (2:12), and grounds this command in the divine creation order.

A procedural motion was made to postpone voting on this motion until after we have dealt with a motion to be presented by Eric Perrin

The Chairman ruled that this decision was a major decision and should be by vote of delegations. His ruling was challenged and overturned. (14-6)

The following motion (in final amended form) was presented:

That NAPARC appoint a study committee consisting of one representative of each church to review the relevant documents of the Christian Reformed Church in North America that give the grounds for the opening of the office of elder to women, such committee to report its finding to the next meeting of NAPARC so the matter may be discussed by the council.

Adopted

X. RECESS

The Council recessed from 10:25 - 10:36 a.m.

XI. RETURN TO THE INTERIM COMMITTEE REPORT

It was moved that the PCA be designated as the church to convene the Study Committee of Review of Documents of the CRCNA.

Adopted

The proposed letter to the CRCNA was voted on by delegations as follows:

ARPC	Yes	OPC	Yes
CRCNA	Abstain	PCA	Yes
KAPC	Yes	RPCNA	Yes

Adopted

The following was moved:

Moved by a deep love for our brother and sisters in the Christian Reformed Church, and

Feeling deep concern as we have heard at this meeting expressions of pain from within the Christian Reformed Church as the treasured unity of that body seems to some to be threatened with rupture, and the consciences of many are sorely tried, and

Standing under the direction of the Scripture to both bear one another's burdens and to earnestly strive to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace

With a humble spirit and a desire to be used by the gracious Holy Spirit as He will and in view of the Spirit of the purpose of NAPARC (Constitution III:3), would communicate to the CRC our desire to render any aid that we might, and again, in a spirit of humility, offer to make available from our member churches a pastoral committee of elders to meet with parties in the CRC, to pray with and for them, and to offer such insights as the Holy Scripture and the Holy Spirit might give them; such pastoral committee to be appointed by the Chairman of NAPARC (of such size and composition as he shall determine) when our brothers and sisters of the CRC shall call for our assistance, and

When and if such request be made, the Secretary will notify member churches in order that intensive prayer and fasting may be offered for God's richest blessing on this effort.

ALL TO THE GLORY OF OUR SOVEREIGN TRIUNE GOD

Adopted

Note: in connection with the adoption of this motion the ARPC nominated Harry T. Schutte and the PCA nominated Henry Lewis Smith as possible members.

XII. Report of the Special Committee on Commemoration of the 350th Anniversary of the Westminster Assembly (Attachment P).

Dr. Charles Carlisle, Chairman of the Special Committee on Commemoration of the 350th Anniversary of the Westminster Assembly, presented the report of the committee.

The Interim Committee's recommendations to NAPARC were moved in the following forms:

a. That NAPARC support the recommendations of the chairman of the report "that funds be turned over to the NAPARC for future projects and that the account be kept separate from other funds for a year to be sure that all expenses have been covered. First claim on the funds would be any expense connected with the publication of the lectures." Adopted

b. That the Council recognize the part of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America contributed to the 350th anniversary celebration of the Westminster Assembly, in originally presenting the celebration idea and in securing the use of Westminster Abby, and

That profound thanks be expressed to the members of the Westminster Assembly Celebration Committee for the splendid job that did, especially to Dr. Charles Carlisle and Dr. John Carson for special leadership, and

That the committee be dissolved.

Adopted

Note: The Rev. Paul Gilchrist presented a program of the PCA for a Westminster Assembly Commemoration to be held June 4-9, 1994 in Atlanta.

XIII. OLD BUSINESS

A. Weighted voting (See attachment A)

The Interim Committee reports to NAPARC that it has not yet completed its study of "weighted voting" but it hopes to report to the 1994 Council on this matter.

B. Application of the RCUS for membership (See attachment E)

The Interim Committee reported that it recommends NAPARC approve the application of the Reformed Church in the United States and that constitutional principles be followed. This was moved.

An amendment was offered to change the word "application" to "applications" and add the words "and the Evangelical Presbyterian Church" following the word "States". the Chairman ruled this amendment out of order. His ruling was challenged The ruling of the chair was upheld.

It was moved that consideration of the pending motion be postponed for one year.

A motion moving the previous question having passed, the vote was taken by delegations:

ARPC	Yes	OPC	No
CRCNA	Abstain	PCA	Yes
KAPC	No	RPCNA	Yes

Adopted
